

Service Guide

Practical support, tailored to you.

Every client is different, which is why our service is flexible.

Some people use us every week for shopping and errands. Others prefer help with paperwork, organising their home or simply having someone they trust to wait in for a delivery.

However you choose to use your package, we're here to make life easier.

This guide explains the services we offer and provides examples of the ways we can help.

If you're ever unsure whether something is included, please ask. If we can help safely and professionally, we'll always do our best.

Home Organisation

A tidy, organised home can make everyday life feel calmer and less stressful.

We can help with:

- Organising cupboards.
- Tidying wardrobes.
- Kitchen organisation.
- Pantry organisation.
- Linen cupboards.
- Children's playrooms.
- Home office organisation.
- Filing paperwork.
- Seasonal storage.
- General decluttering.

Please note that we will never dispose of personal belongings without your permission.

Shopping & Errands

Let us take care of those everyday jobs that take up valuable time.

We can:

- Grocery shop.
- Collect prescriptions.
- Visit the post office.
- Return parcels.
- Collect dry cleaning.

- Buy gifts.
- Purchase household essentials.
- Pick up pet supplies.
- Collect online orders.
- Deliver items locally where appropriate.

Purchases are made using your preferred payment method, and receipts will always be provided.

Household Administration

Keeping on top of paperwork can quickly become overwhelming.

We can assist with:

- Filing documents.
- Organising paperwork.
- Completing simple forms (based on information you provide).
- Managing household correspondence.
- Sorting mail.
- Creating household folders.
- Basic computer tasks.
- Printing and scanning.
- Appointment reminders.

We cannot provide legal or financial advice.

Waiting In Services

Need someone to be at home while you're out?

We can wait in for:

- Deliveries.
- Tradespeople.
- Furniture collections.
- Utility appointments.
- Broadband installations.
- Home surveys.
- Repair appointments.

We'll keep you updated throughout the visit if requested.

Meal Preparation

We can assist with simple meal preparation using ingredients you've provided or asked us to purchase.

Examples include:

- Preparing lunches.

- Preparing evening meals.
- Batch cooking.
- Portioning meals.
- Chopping vegetables.
- Preparing packed lunches.

We do not provide specialist dietary advice unless agreed as part of your service plan.

Pet Support

For many clients, pets are part of the family.

We can help with:

- Dog walking.
- Feeding pets.
- Refreshing water bowls.
- Cleaning litter trays.
- Letting dogs into the garden.
- Visiting pets while you're away for short periods.
- Purchasing pet supplies.

We do not provide veterinary care or administer medication unless specifically agreed in writing.

Transport Support

Where available and agreed in advance, we may be able to provide transport assistance.

Examples include:

- Medical appointments.
- Hair appointments.
- Shopping trips.
- Visiting friends or family.
- Social activities.
- Local events.

Please see our separate Transport Agreement for full details.

Holiday Home Checks

Going away?

We can help protect your home by:

- Collecting post.
- Opening and closing curtains.
- Watering indoor plants.
- Checking windows and doors.
- Running taps if requested.

- Visual security checks.

We'll contact you immediately if we notice anything unusual.

Lifestyle Support

Sometimes it's simply helpful to have another pair of hands.

Lifestyle support may include:

- Gift shopping.
- Wrapping presents.
- Event preparation.
- Seasonal decorating assistance.
- Organising family paperwork.
- Home project support.
- Creating shopping lists.
- General practical assistance.

Every client's needs are different, and we'll always try to tailor our support accordingly.

What We Don't Do

To keep everyone safe and ensure we remain within our insurance and professional boundaries, there are certain services we cannot provide.

These include:

- Personal care (such as washing, dressing or toileting).
- Medical or nursing care.
- Administering medication (unless specifically agreed in writing and covered by our policies).
- Financial advice.
- Legal advice.
- Heavy lifting beyond safe manual handling limits.
- Roofing or working at height.
- Electrical work.
- Gas work.
- Plumbing repairs.
- Structural building work.
- Tree surgery.
- Pest control.
- Services that require a licensed or regulated professional.
- Any task that places you, our staff or others at unnecessary risk.

If we're unable to help directly, we'll always try to recommend an appropriate professional where possible.

Tailoring Your Support

Your package is designed to work around you.

There is no "standard" visit.

One week you may ask us to:

- Organise the kitchen.
- Shop for groceries.
- Collect a prescription.

The following week you may need us to:

- Wait in for a plumber.
- Walk the dog.
- Sort household paperwork.

That's the benefit of choosing Sorted.—our support is flexible and built around your changing needs.

Before Every Visit

To help us provide the best possible service, we ask that you let us know:

- Any priority tasks.
- Any changes to your plans.
- Access arrangements.
- Anything you'd like us to bring or collect.
- Any relevant updates about your household.

The more information you can provide, the better we can tailor each visit.

Our Promise

Every service, no matter how large or small, is delivered with the same commitment to professionalism, reliability and care.

We believe it's often the little things that make the biggest difference.

Thank you for choosing Sorted.

We're here to help make everyday life that little bit easier.

Sorted.

Your home. Handled.
